

Wonders of Alaska

March 5 - 12, 2020

Experience the excitement and energy of the Ceremonial Start of the famous Iditarod. Bask in the warmth of natural hot springs as you marvel at the vibrant colors of the Northern Lights. Take a thrilling dogsled ride through an Alaskan winter wonderland. All this and much more are included on this fabulous, once-in-a-lifetime, authentic Alaskan adventure. Don't miss out on the fun!

Thursday, March 5

Fly to Anchorage and check into the perfectly located Anchorage Hilton for three nights. You'll be just a heartbeat away from the excitement of the Fur Rendezvous Festival, museums and shops.

Friday, March 6 (Dinner)

Step outside into a wonderland to discover the magic of Anchorage in winter! This morning, see artistic masterpieces carved from huge blocks of compressed snow at the GCI Snow Sculpture Competition. At the Ulu Factory we'll learn how Native Alaskans have used ulu knives for thousands of years. Visit the Train Depot filled with displays and a working miniature train. Tasty lunch options abound including food carts offering local cuisine such as reindeer sausage. This afternoon you may take an incredible, optional, 90-minute flightseeing excursion or stay in town to visit museums, shop, and explore the Fur Rondy Native Arts Market. Dinner will be at the 49th State Brewing Company, known for its specialty Alaskan foods, followed by the Fur Rondy Melodrama. Throw popcorn, clap, cheer, hiss and boo at the zany cast as they sing and dance their way directly into your funny bone.

Saturday, March 7 (Breakfast, Dinner)

Prepare for an exciting day at the Fur Rendezvous Festival! Known locally as Fur Rondy, this premier festival celebrates winter and the pioneering spirit of Alaskans. Cultural exhibitions, sporting activities, and many special events offer wonderful, wacky, winter fun! Experience the incredible excitement of the Iditarod Ceremonial Start. Visit with mushers, pet the dogs, and then cheer for your favorites as the race begins! Watch the exciting Fur Auction, held in honor of the historic economic importance of the Alaska fur trade. Learn about Alaska's 11 major cultural groups through storytelling, song, dance, and artist demonstrations at the Alaska Native Heritage Center. Don't miss the hilarious Run with the Reindeer Race, where the locals make a mad dash through town with caribou at their heels. Indulge in a typical Alaskan feast tonight at the Glacier Brewhouse.

Sunday, March 8 (Dinner)

Today we travel to Talkeetna, an authentic Alaskan town used as the model for the TV show Northern Exposure. Have lunch at one of the local eateries and look for authentic souvenirs in the unique shops, including Nagley's General Store, where miner and trapper history lines the walls. We'll check into the Talkeetna Alaskan Lodge where it's all about the view! The lodge is built atop a high bluff and overlooks the entire Alaska Range, with Mt. Denali right in the middle. We'll gather in the hotel's restaurant for dinner tonight. The hotel provides northern lights wake up calls, so when the Aurora Borealis comes into view, the hotel will call you. This is a great opportunity to see the dramatic northern lights with Denali as the backdrop.

Monday, March 9 (Breakfast, Dinner)

Today our flight to Fairbanks takes us over Denali National Park affording us amazing views! After checking into the Springhill Suites, you are free to visit the shops and galleries filled with Alaska Native art and jewelry. Visit the Yukon Quest Cabin that highlights the Yukon Quest, a 1,000-mile International Sled Dog Race that starts in Fairbanks. We'll enjoy a delicious dinner at Lavelle's Bistro. This evening we will head to the World Ice Art Championship to view hundreds of amazing ice sculptures created by more than 100 sculptors from 30 different countries! With our Alaskan sense of adventure in high gear, we're off to "hunt the Aurora". Without light pollution from the city, we'll have an excellent chance to see the northern lights while waiting inside our warming hut.

Tuesday, March 10 (Breakfast, Dinner)

We set out this morning to discover more of Fairbanks. We'll make a photo stop at the Alaska pipeline before checking into the Chena Hot Springs Resort, world-renowned for being one of the best places on Earth to see the Aurora Borealis due to its location under the most active band of northern lights. We'll visit the Aurora Ice Museum, the world's largest year-round ice environment, filled with amazing ice sculptures. It was created from over 1,000 tons of ice and snow and is kept at a cool 25° F. Before dinner at the resort, you'll have time to experience the Chena Natural Hot Springs Pool. The thermal waters, rising steam, and glorious winter sky create a unique and memorable experience! Choose to watch the northern lights as you soak in the hot springs or stay warm inside the resort's activity center until the Aurora Borealis is in view.

Wednesday, March 11 (Breakfast, Box Lunch, Dinner)

Authentic Alaska experience, here we come! Just imagine gliding silently along a stunning wooded trail on a sled powered by a team of dogs. Our experienced guides and teams of eager Alaskan huskies will make this a memory of a lifetime. Enjoy a box lunch as we fly back to Anchorage. Tonight's dinner will be at Simon & Seafort's before we head back to the Anchorage airport for our overnight flight home.

Thursday, March 12

Arrive home today filled with wonderful memories of our fabulous Alaskan adventure!
